

Deborah Susan Claudson, 56, of North Platte, passed away June 7, 2021 at home. She was born December 8, 1964 to Walter and Bonnie (Honkcomp) Collins in Omaha.

Deborah graduated from Joseph's College of Beauty. On October 10, 1987 she married Kelly Claudson in North Platte. Deborah worked at several hair salons in town before opening Bold and Beautiful in North Platte and owned it until this past January. She was also a Mary Kay sales director for many years. Throughout her career she made countless friends and touched the lives of many. She will be dearly missed.

Deborah enjoyed camping, fishing, boating, and loved to garden. She was a very caring and loving wife, mother, and grandmother.

Survivors include her husband Kelly of North Platte; mother, Bonnie Curry of North Platte; three children, Austin Claudson of North Platte, Candace White of Kearney, Ethan Claudson of North Platte; granddaughter, Sadie White of Kearney; sister, Donna Collins of Omaha; nephew, Chaz Liechti of Omaha; several other family members and friends.

She was preceded in death by her father,

Visitation will be held 2:00-4:00 P.M., Saturday, June 12, 2021 at Adams & Swanson Funeral Home which is in charge of arrangements. Private burial will be at a later date.