

Mrs. Phoebe Chesley or "Grandma" Chesley, as she was called, passed away Tuesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Lucy Copeland. She was 98 years of age. She was loved by all who knew her for her cheery smile and sunny disposition. Grandma will be greatly missed, but her good work shall go on.